While under school jurisdict on, students are required to conduct themselves at all times in a manner that is in the best interest of the school and community. It is expected that students will:

- A. Conform to reasonable standards of speech, conduct, and dress and refrain from vulgar,obscene, and disrespect ul conduct directed toward staf and other students.
- B. Refrain from violat ng or impairing the rights of others, including physical abuse, sexual harassment, hazing, and conduct considered "bullying" as defined in state law and prohibited under School District policy.
- C. Refrain from conduct that deprives other students of an orderly atmosphere for learning.
- D. Refrain from knowingly possessing, handling, or transmit ng any object that can reasonably be considered a weapon.

o . o	Aggravated Assault is an unlawful at ack by one person upon another wherein the of ender uses a weapon or displays it in a threatening manner or the vict m suffers obvious severe or aggravated bodily injury involving apparent broken bones, loss of teeth, possible internal injury, severe lacerat on, or loss of consciousness. This category includes at empted murder. A weapon can be a commonly known weapon, such as a gun or knife, or any other item, which, although not usually thought of as a weapon, becomes one when used in a manner that could cause severe bodily injury (e.g., baseball bat, metal chain, large st ck). A "severe lacerat on" is one that should receive medical at ent on. A "loss of consciousness" must be the direct result of force inficted on the vict m by the of ender.
=	Homicide is the killing of one human being by another. Does not include vehicular manslaughter or at empted murder as a homicide. Non-negligent manslaughter is defined as the willful (non- negligent) killing of one human being by another. Negligent manslaughter is defined as the killing of another person through negligence. This of ense does not include vehicular manslaughter. k	Robbery is defined as the taking or at empting to take anything of value under confrontational circumstances from the control, custody, or care of another person by force or threat of force or violence and/or by puting the victim in fear of immediate harm. Because some type of assault is an element of the crime of robbery, an assault should not be reported as a separate crime if it is performed in furtherance of the robbery. If an injury occurring during a robbery results in death, the crime should be listed as a homicide.
o \ . 7	A Forcible Sex of ense is any sexual act directed against another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will, or not forcibly or against the person's will where the vict m is incapable of giving consent. This definit on includes forcible rape, forcible sodomy, sexual assault with an object (to use an object or instrument to unlawfully penetrate, however slightly, the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will where the vict m is incapable of giving consent because of his or her youth or because of his or her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity), and/or forcible fondling (child molest ng).
