

-
1. What is the passage mostly about? What evidence from the text supports your answer?
 2. Which sentence from the passage explains the illustration? (Have your child find an actual sentence in the story that matches the illustration on the page.)
 3. What detail from the story shows how _____ feels?
 4. What does the illustration show and why did the author include this illustration with the story?
 5. What does the text tell you about the setting?
 6. How does the illustration show the problem in the story?
 7. How does the reader know the events in the story are/are not real?
 8. Read the list of events from the story. What is the correct order of events?
 9. What does the reader learn at the beginning of the story?
 10. What does the reader learn about _____ ?
 11. What event would best fit at the end of the story?
 12. How do the events in the story cause _____ feelings to change from the beginning of the story to the end of the story?
 13. In which part did _____ find the solution to his problem?
 14. How does _____ feel in the beginning, middle, and end?
 15. Which words best describe the character? (Push your child to think beyond feelings and focus on character traits- honest, responsible, kind, etc.)
 16. How did the character(s) respond to the problem?
 17. How do _____ feelings/responses change from the beginning of the story to the end?

1. How does