learn together, create together, write together, and grow together.

LEARN

A few selections you can look forward to are:

Essential Focus: Monsters and Heroes

ACHIEVE

Though British literature is the overall topic of this class, the themes and skills we will learn transfer to all future endeavors- from college to career. I want you to leave this class feeling confident in your writing, inferencing, discussing, and close reading skills. The lessons in this class will align with state standards which can be found here: <https://ed.sc.gov/sites/scdoe/assets/File/instruction/standards/ELA/ELA%20Standards/SCCCR%20Standards%20OnePager%20English%204.pdf>

GROW

The goal is to grow your unique ELA talents and perspective. Please respect yourself and know that you can succeed using your own human intelligence and talents. Please reference our school handbook for academic dishonesty and late work policies.

Policies

Policies help ensure that this class is fair and organized. These rules will ensure everyone knows what to expect so that we can focus on learning, creating, and having fun!

CELLPHONES/ TECHNOLOGY

Cellphones, earbuds, and other distracting technology are not allowed during class time. If you are on your phone (YouTube, playing games, etc.), you will be given a warning ONCE. Additional offenses will receive a write up.

I do NOT allow eating or drinking in my classroom except for special occasions.

MISSING/LATE WORK

All late work will receive 5 pts. off for work 1-5 school days late and 10 pts. off for work that is 7-10 school days late. I WILL NOT ACCEPT ANY WORK THAT IS LATER THAN 2 WEEKS PAST THE DEADLINE.

All assignments, daily agendas, and materials will be available on Schoology, so check there for anything you miss while absent.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

INTENTIONAL CHEATING: Cheating is wrong and lazy. If you submit any assignment with answers/responses that are not your own (copied/taken from the internet or other source including ChatGPT), you will receive a zero with a chance to submit original work for full credit within 3 days. If you copy or let someone copy your answers/responses, you will both receive a zero with a chance to submit original work for full credit within 3 days.
