

If I could interview anyone for black history month it would be Maya Angelou. I would interview her because she was so inspirational and strong, and I loved everything about her. My questions for her would be how she learned to overcome her trauma's and how did she become so at peace within herself. Another question would be, did she ever forgive her abuser?

What was the hardest part about forgiving him? Also, another one of my questions would be was how did she forgive herself? Even though she knew it wasn't her fault how did she learn to stop blaming herself for his death?

Maya Angelou was an American poet; she also was an actress. Maya Angelou wrote poems for people to be at peace.

ij tēō 7æfōž• ° fĈijĈ ÁĈ jææŋu ijū Ũēðyēd' Žæ đōōæfōĉē æŸēō ēōŭæŋŋ ŋ ēōž Ĩō

"We know

Happy Valentine's Day to Everyone!- Anonymous

To: Ryann Kelly, Shane Nicoles, and Johnny Boulware:
Have a Happy
Valentine's Day! I hope that you have a good day and an awesome week and weekend. I miss being able to be at school
with you guys.
Hopeful I will be back soon.-
One of your friends

Love guys,
Dear Alyssa, Lance, & Olivia,
all WS
I would like to wish you all a Happy Valentine's Day! I know we might not have a Valentine this year, so I'm sending love and goodluck our way.
Love ya'll alot, *ine

To Jessie Day, I had a crush on you since 7th grade and I love you, Your Secret Admirer

Happy V-Day to all WS staff! Thank you for keeping us safe through this tough time! XOXO-Students

Mrs. Chavious – thank you for always being there when I need you -Always having a shoulder to cry on and wiping my tears. And having an available ear when I need to vent. I love more then I can ever tell you. Love #5